1	Resolution on Virtual Delegate Assembly Meetings
2	Without Article 9, Section 7, fithe Declarity of Staff Commune (DSC) of the City University of
3 4	Whereas, Article 8, Section 7 of the Professional Staff Congress (PSC) of the City University of New York Constitution states: "Unless otherwise provided in this Constitution, or by established
4 5	bylaws, the rules and procedures of the Delegate Assembly shall follow the practices described
6	in the latest revised edition of Robert's Rules of Order."
7
8	Whereas, Section 9.31 of Robert's Rules of Order, 12th Edition states: "an electronic meeting that
9	is properly authorized in the bylaws is treated as though it were a meeting at which all the
10	members who are participating are actually present."
11
12	Whereas, the PSC Constitution has no such bylaw authorizing electronic meetings, and therefore
13	must authorize any electronic Delegate Assembly meetings through a policy resolution of the
14	DA.
15
16	Therefore, be it:
17
18	Resolved , that regularly scheduled meetings of the PSC Delegate Assembly may be held by
19 20	<ul><li>means of electronic video participation in the following circumstances:</li><li>a. If the DA votes to hold subsequent meetings by means of electronic video</li></ul>
20 21	participation; or
22	b. If the PSC President, in consultation with the Executive Council, decides that the
23	interests of the Union are best served by holding a regularly scheduled meeting by
24	means of electronic video participation.
25
26	Resolved , that a special meeting of the DA may be held by means of electronic video
27	participation if the PSC President, in consultation with the Executive Council, decides that the
28	interests of the Union are best served by holding the special meeting by means of electronic
29	video participation.
30
31	Resolved, that notice to all delegates and alternates of a meeting of the Delegate Assembly to be
32	held by means of electronic video participation shall be sent by email no later than 14 days prior
33	to the date of the meeting, or as close to 14 days as possible.
