

33 Whereas, many NYSUT members are engaged in a similar transformational education
34 project, many are involved in teacher training, and thousands are teachers, working in every area
35 of the state; and

36 Whereas, participants at the first regional gathering of the Workers' Economy, a group of 37 academics and unionists (founded in 2007 in Buenos Aires), held in Mexico City in November, 38 and including two NYSUT members, unanimously adopted the following eloquent statement of 39 solidarity:

40 We, workers, activists and academics from Mexico, the U.S.A, Canada and other
41 countries, wish to express our pain, dignified rage and condemnation of the forced 42 disappearance of 43 student teachers of the Ayotzinapa teacher training college, which 43 was perpetrated in Iguala, in the state of Guerrero, on September 26th last, by the 44 Municipal Police of Iguala and Cocula and by an as yet unidentified "group of 45 civilians," which could be members of the Guerreros Unidos drug cartel and/or of the 46 Mexican military...

47 We express our solidarity with the struggle of the families of the disappeared students
48 and of the persons murdered by the security forces of the Mexican State and our support
49 for their demands for the return alive of the 43 disappeared students, for the revelation of 50 the full truth on what happened and for the punishment of those responsible for these 51 heinous crimes of State at every level of the Mexican government, including if necessary,
52 of the chief of the Mexican security forces, President Enrique Peña Nieto...

53 Finally, we wish to express our support for the struggle of the Ayotzinapa social 54 movement made up above all of millions of students and youth in Mexico and around 55 the world who share the same demands, and our solidarity with those who have been 56 unjustly repressed and arrested and who must be immediately released. "Alive they were 57 taken, alive we want them back!"; therefore be it

58 RESOLVED, that NYSUT endorses the above solidarity statement of the Workers'
59 Economy conference in Mexico City, and that NYSUT will send copies of this resolution to 60 the relevant authorities in Mexico and the United States, to the group of families of the 43
61 students, as well as to the faculty and students of the Ayotzinapa Teachers College in 62 Mexico.

ⁱ Johnson, Tim, "At College of Missing Mexican Students, History of Revolutionary Zeal," <http://www.csmonitor.com/World/Americas/2014/1013/At-college-of-missing-Mexican-students-history-of-revolutionary-zeal>, (The Christian Science Monitor: October 13, 2014).

ⁱⁱ Martínez, Rubén, "Mexico Reels, and the U.S. Looks Away," Los Angeles Times.
<http://www.latimes.com/opinion/op-ed/la-oe-martinez-mexico-students-massacre-20141116-story.html>, (Los Angeles Times: November 16, 2014).

ⁱⁱⁱ Randal C. Archibold and Paulina Villegas, “Keeping Mexico’s Revolutionary Fires Alive,” http://www.nytimes.com/2014/11/03/world/americas/mexico-missing-students.html?_r=1, (New York Times: November 20, 2014).

^{iv} Lewis, Ted, “Mexican Government – Tell Us the Truth – Where are the Ayotzinapa 43,” http://www.huffingtonpost.com/ted-lewis/mexican-government-tell-u_b_6025544.html, (Huffington Post: October 22, 2014).

^v Agredano Rivera, Héctor, “Mexico Murder Mystery: 43 Students Still Missing,” <https://indypendent.org/2014/10/28/mexico-murder-mystery-43-students-still-missing>, (The Indypendent: October 28, 2014).

^{vi} Mack, David and Noriega, David, “Mexican Mayor Charged in Disappearance and Death of Dozens of Students,” <http://www.buzzfeed.com/davidmack/mexican-mayor-charged-over-student-deaths#.fxNQpRAkG>, (BuzzFeed News: November 14, 2014).

^{vii} Tuckman, Jo, “Former Mayor Charged with Kidnapping in Case of Missing 43 Mexican Students,” <http://www.theguardian.com/world/2015/jan/14/former-mayor-charged-kidnapping-missing-43-mexican-students>, (The Guardian: January 14, 2015).

^{viii} Sullivan, Gail, “Charred Bodies Found in ‘the Land of the Wicked’ may be Missing Mexican Students,” <http://www.washingtonpost.com/news/morning-mix/wp/2014/10/06/charred-bodies-found-in-the-land-of-the-wicked-may-be-missing-mexican-students/>, (The Washington Post: October 6, 2014).

^{ix} Castillo, Eduardo and Verza, Maria, “Remains of One of Mexico’s Missing Students Identified: Official,” http://www.huffingtonpost.com/2014/12/06/missing-mexico-students-identified_n_6281732.html (Huffington Post: December 6, 2014).