

BMCC FACULTY & STAFF: BRING YOUR CLASSES!
BMCC STUDENTS: BRING YOUR TEACHERS!

THE SAFETY NET, SEQUESTRATION AND AUSTERITY POLITICS:

Where we are headed. What we can do.

A FORUM

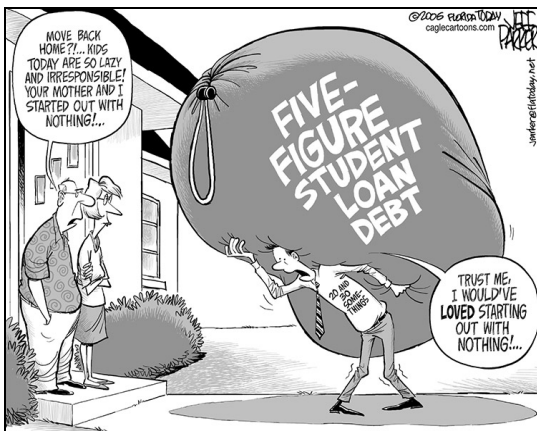

Monday, April 8th

Light Refreshments – 5:30 pm/ Program 6 – 9 pm

Borough of Manhattan Community College

Richard Harris Terrace

199 Chambers Street

The attack on the safety net cuts across generations. If not stopped, it threatens a grim future for the many Americans. Student loan debt is already approaching a trillion dollars and rollbacks to Social Security and Medicare threaten future generations.

PROGRAM: Dean Baker, Center for Economic and Policy Research ● James Parrott, Fiscal Policy Institute ● Frances Fox Piven, CUNY Grad Center ● Michael Zweig, SUNY Stony Brook and US Labor Against the War ● Labor Arts Visual Presentation on the history and importance of the Social Safety Net by Rachel Bernstein and Evelyn Rich

Organized by the Professional Staff Congress/CUNY.

Co-Sponsors: "No Bad Grand Bargain" Coalition, New York City Alliance for Retired Americans, The New York City Managerial Employees Association.